FIRST HACKS SLOWLY INTO SIEGFRIED LINE

By EDWARD KENNEDY

Paris, Dec. 15-(A)-The U. S. Seventh Army invaded Germany today, driving across the northeast tip of Alsace into the old Bavarian Ualatinate, less than seven miles from Karlsruhe and 35 from Mannheim and Ludwigshafen, all great industrial cities of the Rhineland.

The Seventh was the fourth American army to trample German soil. It crossed the frontier exactly four months after wading ashore

County Reach 44 Per Cent WIPE OU In War Bond Quota To Date At a meeting of the Warren County War Finance Committee ves terday afternoon, W. E. Yeager, chairman of the county's Payrol Fresh Attacks on Iwo Jima

Savings Division, in charge of bond campaigns in plants and firms employing 100 or more, reported that 6th War Loan purchases to date had reached $177,832. This includes all regular payroll bond deductions for November and December to date, as well as all extra bonds purchased through the plant organizations. With a quota of $400,000 for the period of the drive, based on past excellent performance of this division, it is obvious that the present 44% will have to be boosted considerably if a satisfactory showing is to be made. Plant quotas were originally based on a flat $75 per employe, in accordance with Treasury requirements, but it is recognized locally that special conditions in various plants make this too easy for some and unattainable ters, Philippines, Dec. 15-(R)for others. #### RECORD DECEMBER STORM

Papers of the area are pretty well agreed on the assertion that the Weatherman this week has established a snowfall record that may stand for untold years to come. As the Meadville Tribune-Republican says: "The 'old-timers' are harking back to historic storms of '04 and '13 and '36. They had to admit, at least those interviewed, that this December storm of '44 still was in a class by itself.

It has been an unusual sort of record-breaking storm as far as the section is concerned, however. The Tribune-Republican cites these examples, which hold true in Warren as well:

Serious accidents appeared to be at a minimum, thank goodness. The usual grisly grist of bad falls and bad skids and bad crackups apparently failed to accompany this particular storm. Newspaperpeople checking all possible sources for "snow news," were a bit surprised and at the same time thankful because this time they didn't have tragedies to report.

Of course, there was the inconvenience: People in the rural districts didn't get their mail; mail was late; newspaper carrier boys had the dickens of a time getting around on their routes; busses were off schedule; and shoveling snow from driveways and sidewalks got to be a heavy chore after the first 15 or 20 minutes—especially to those of us unused to so-called heavy work. Cars were stranded, buried under 20 inches of snow in many cases; and it looked last evening as if many of them might stay that way for days, or weeks.

But, shucks, who are we to complain about mere inconveniences? What do we know about real weathercaused hardships? What about our fighting men, carrying on their prodigious struggle against the Germans in waist-deep snow and flood-stage mud?

Maybe it was questions like these, asked of ourselves, that kept reception of this almost unprecedented storm on a high level of good humor. We wouldn't know for sure. But we'd guess it was the case.

At any rate, that's the kind of reception this whopper of a snowfall was getting. We were taking it and liking it. And besides, look at all the meetings and games and school sessions and conventions and banquets and winners and clambakes that were postponed on account of the weather. A lot of us were getting an unexpected -and most welcome-opportunity to sit for an evening before our own fireside, toasting our toes and visiting with our families.

EXPLANATION

Before any touchy Kentuckians utter bitter, hasty words about the eminent commander of our European forces, it should be made clear that the general sent the whiskey to the hospital for the patients, not for analysis.

Merchants affiliated with the Retailers Division of the Warren Chamber of Commerce start Christmas holiday hours this evening, remaining open until nine o'clock, through Friday, December 22d. Stores will close at six o'clock Saturday, December 23rd. But that is no reason for delaying your shopping until the evening hours, unless it is absolutely essential.

A poll of department store Santa discloses that the top request on most children's Christmas lists is that Santa "send my daddy home from overseas." The purchase of an extra War Bond by all of us will be a great help to the old gentleman in carrying out that Christmas mandate.

Last-minute reminder to donors who are scheduled to appear during the visit of the American Red Cross Blood Bank Monday and Tuesday: Keep your appointment if at all possible. The record snow fall came just right for the kiddies who start their Christmas vacation Wednesday.

Kresge

Youngsville, Dec. 14-Despite difficult driving, there was a large attendance Tuesday evening at the Brokenstraw Valley Garden Club Christmas meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton on West Main street. A very fine tureen dinner was held at 6:30 p. m. followed by the business session with Mrs. C. C. Johnson, the president, presiding. The response to the roll call was the giving of Christmas sentiments. Routine business was conducted. By vote the club decided to continue the 6:30 p. m. turee. dinner meetings, to make January this year as last, a vacation month. The next club meeting will be a tureen dinner meeting on Feb. 20th at the home of Mrs. Nellie Ander-

A feature of the evening was the display of Christmas Greens arranged by members. In a number of these Christmas candles were combined with the green to afford lighting for the Christmas table as well as decorations. Forethought in getting the material was shown in some of the decoration ideas when cones from this vicinity, gilded grasses and colored seed pods were used in making the pieces. The men of the club as their entertainment gave a clever and very humorous sketch called "Country Justice". It was a court-room scene with Joe Davis as judge, C C. Johnson as claimant and James Hamilton as defendant, Messer Stillings and Bailey as attorneys and Messrs Black and Husted as witnesses. A group of ladies acted as jury and the entire production was full of laughs.

An interesting Christmas contest with prizes was conducted. "Silent Night" was sung. An exchange of gifts was the closing

STAR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Following the Eastern Star Chapter meeting Friday evening the annual Christmas party was held in the dining room of the I. O. O. F. Hall, Miss Audress Smith gave a reading "Our King" and Mrs. Russell Smith showed beautiful silhouette in shadows of the nativity scenes while appropriate Christmas songs were sung by the choir with Miss Lilly Wood as soloist. After an exchange of gifts & pleasing luncheon was served including chicken and mushrooms in mbales, hot rolls, coffee, cranberry sauce was served. Mrs. R. L. Mead, Worthy Matron, added to the luncheon delicious home made and very attractively decorated cookies of assorited kinds which she served from a tray. She also presented each guest present with a personal gift. Sixty-five guests were present. A number in attendance were from Warren.

Committee for the evening consisted of Vivian Smith, Chairlady; Wave Carlson, Virgie Smith, Lilly Wood, Ellen Johnson, Jane Johnson and Edith Husted.

> On the bulletin board above my desk there is a picture the title of which is "The Hope of a Nation". The picture presents a view through an arched window. In the background is a brook, in the distance a mountain, and above the ountain a hazy sun with the barest suggestion of a cross.

Occupying almost the entire left side of the picture against a background of heavy velvet is an Aman flag. Lying upon a table in the foreground is an open Bible. 9:45 a. m.—Worship service The picture, rich in color, beauti- 10:45 a. m.—Sunday School. in design, suggests that as a Mr. Carrier is choirmaster of the on we have depended upon the Bible for guidance and that as we look up stream to the mountain, to the future, to the hard pull ahead it is only as we have, the Bible open before us for guidance and study that we can attain a to greet all his friends. Every little girl and boy wants to tell Santa what is wanted most for Christmas, and Santa wants to hear all about that doll, game, or whatever it is. So, every one of you come and tell Santa all about everything . . . and if you have been a good little boy or girl, he will try so hard to bring you all the many things you have on your "wish list" this Christmas.

TOYS galore, every kind from little wheel toys made of wood for the tiniest one, to big bicycles for the older ones, games, dolls, sewing sets . . . just every little thing is right here for you to see.

SANTA'S CASTLE will be open all day Saturday with a brand new set of toys that he has been busy making this last week. Come one and all and visit Santa's Castle, and for ten cents receive one of these gifts, then slide down into Santa's arms.
